

Himalaya Trekking (10 days / 9 nights)

 Based on 3-star hotels in the cities and a tented camp while trekking (Land only)

Day 01	Arrive Kathmandu (D.): On arrival, meet and transfer to hotel. A city tour of Kathmandu introduces Durbar Square and Swoyambhunath Stupa. Tonight, enjoy dinner with Nepalese Cultural show.
Day 02	Kathmandu (B. L.): Visits of Patan Durbar Square, Pashupatinath Temple and Boudhanath Stupa.
Day 03	Kathmandu / Pokhara (B. L.): Enjoy a scenic drive to Pokhara, one of the most populous destinations in Nepal. The place is surrounded by three out of the ten highest mountains in the world (Dhaulagiri, Annapurna and Manaslu).
Day 04	Pokhara / Ulleri (B. L. D.): Drive to Nayapool (42 km), the starting point of our Himalayan trekking. We trek for half an hour from Nayapool to Birethani crossing Modi River. From there, a 2-hour upward trekking to Burundi Khola and Ramghai / Hille. After a lunch break, another 2-hour trek will bring us to Tirkhedhunda at 1,577 m. We cross the 'hanging bridge' and followed by a one and half hour climbing up to Ulleri (2,073 m). Ulleri is a small village and from here we will see the mountain of Annapurna at 7,219 metres and Himchhuli at 6,441 metres... Trekking distance: 13 km (approximately 6 hours)
Day 05	Ulleri / Ghorepani (B. L. D.): Ascending to Banthanti (2,350 m) and Nangethanti (2,550 m). Here we will walk inside of Oak and rhododendron forest. Continue to Ghorepani (2,874 m), a beautiful Magar village where we will see the range of Dhaulagiri and Annapurna ranges. Trekking distance: 8 km (approximately 5 hours)
Day 06	Ghorepani / Tadapani (B. L. D.): An early morning sunrise detour to Poonhill (3,210 m and approximately 45-minute walk). From here, we can see Dhaulagiri at 8,167 m, Tukucho Peak at 6,920 m, Dhampus Peak at 6,012 m, Nilgiri at 7,061 m, Annapurna at 8,091 m, Himchhuli at 6,441 m, Fishtail at 6,997 m, Lumjung Himal at 6,920 m and Manslu at 8,163 m, etc. After breakfast, we depart for Deurali and Banthanti. After lunch, another one and half hour trek will take us down to Tadapani village (2,660 m). Trekking distance: 12 km (approximately 5 hours)
Day 07	Tadapani . Ghandruk (B. L. D.): We are descending today to Bhisekharka for 45-minute gentle walk in the forest and followed by a 2-hour gentle down and flat to Ghandruk, where we will see a number of peaks in the Himalaya ranges. We will visit the old town of Ghandruk before the call of the day.
Day 08	Ghandruk / Pokhara (B. L. D.): A two and half hour trek will take us to Saulibazar and from there, we walk to Birethanti for lunch. We get to Nayapool (the ending point of our trek) and drive back to Pokhara.
Day 09	Pokhara / Kathmandu (B. L.): After breakfast, a short flight to Kathmandu and the rest of the day is at leisure.
Day 10	Departure (B.): Time at our own leisure till a transfer to airport for our international flight.

Cost: From USD 1,470 per person sharing, USD 245 additional for single supplement.